

Organizations Helping Austin's Students

If you know of any students or families that are in need of assistance to help prepare for the 2008-09 school year, please contact the organizations provided below.

Project HELP – AISD program. 414-3690

<http://www.austinisd.org/academics/sss/projecthelp/index.phtml>

(Located at ALC, assisting in all areas of need)

United Way

www.unitedwaycapitalarea.org

Anywhere in Texas, anyone can call 2-1-1 for free information and referrals to health and human service agencies, nonprofit and faith-based organizations, disaster relief resources, and volunteer opportunities.

For the Children – Central Texas Program

www.schoolsuppliesforthechildren.org

Operation School Bell – Austin Assistance League program

www.alaaustin.org/OSB-new.htm

(Clothing and other personal items)

Austin Partners in Education – Local Austin Program

www.austinpartners.org

(School supplies & tutoring & college readiness for primary and secondary students in AISD)

Communities In Schools

www.cisaustin.org

Located in over 50 campuses throughout Central Texas.

Please visit our web site or call for services available.

Lamar M.S. Program Manager: Karen McGarity 414-4671

Lamar Middle School
201 Wynona Ave.
Austin, Texas 78757
512-414-3217